The Queen's home in London

Buckingham Palace has served as the official London residence of Britain's sovereigns since 1837. Besides being the official London residence of The Queen, Buckingham Palace is also the busy administrative headquarters of the Monarchy (...).

Buckingham Palace has 775 rooms. These include 19 State rooms, 52 Royal and guest bedrooms, 188 staff bedrooms, 92 offices and 78 bathrooms. The Palace is very much a working building and the centerpiece of Britain's constitutional monarchy. It houses the offices of those who support the day-to-day activities and duties of The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh and their immediate family.

The Palace is also the venue for great Royal ceremonies, State Visits and Investitures, all of which are organized by the Royal Household. More than 50,000 people visit the Palace each year as guests to banquets, lunches, dinners, receptions and Royal Garden Parties.
